“A new pilot program has been launched by the Holder DOJ that could help bring police departments under federal control. It will be based on the premise that there is rampant bias in all police departments in the country and it will be aimed at saving the poor victimized minorities who are unfairly arrested. ”

Obama Unveils National ObamaLaw Plan

President Barack Obama has introduced his plan for a progressive takeover of state and local policing. “We have a great opportunity...” Obama also instructed his media allies to help federalize policing, and to sideline the critics of centralized policing rules. “I expect our friends in the media to really focus on what’s in this report and pay attention to it . . .”
