

In this years conference 2015, we are meeting in the heart of the American Redoubt. While the messages are largely focused on the redoubt, the scriptural and historical truths presented, speak to Christians everywhere and at all times, as we "ask for the old paths where is the good way, so that we may walk therein."

Join us for the weekend as we consider the following subjects.

Weaver:

- * The Enmity and Ignorance Concerning the Confederate Battle Flag
 - * When it is Time!
- * Jonathan Davis and the Combat Mentality

Baldwin:

- * The American Redoubt- "Despise not the day of small things"

McConnell:

- * Biblical Obedience Preceeds Civil Disobedience
- * Biblical Agrarianism (A powerful message on stewarding the Land)

Campbell:

- * A Land I Will Show Thee
- * State Churches vs. Free Churches

Pastor Thomas McConnell
Pastor Warren M. Campbell

John Weaver, Fitzgerald, Georgia, is a pastor who speaks across the country on theology, economics, history, constitutionalism, civil government and practical Christian obedience. An expositor of God's entire Word, Pastor Weaver's preaching style is in the tradition of those early Colonial patriot pastors whose pulpits were the cradle of America's liberty.

Chuck Baldwin, is an American Politician, radio host, and founder-former pastor of Crossroad Baptist Church in Pensacola Florida. Now pastor of Liberty Fellowship in Kalispell, Montana. He was the presidential nominee of the Constitution Party for the 2008 U.S. presidential election.

Thomas McConnell, is a Pastor and noted speaker on biblical agrarianism, community, and economics. His years of hands on experience gives him practical insight into these vital aspects of Christian culture.

Warren M. Campbell, is the Senior pastor of the newly formed Lordship church in Coeur D' Alene, Idaho. He was the long time pastor of The church at Kaweah, in California where the last eighteen Old Paths Christian History Conferences were held. Warren's ministry includes a heavy emphasis on the church militant.
